

UK Supreme Court Open Day

Come and discover the highest court in the land!
Tuesday 29 May, 9.30am-4.30pm

Activities on offer throughout the day:

- Learn about the role of the Supreme Court through a short introductory video presented by Stacey Dooley in the Lawyers' Suite.
- Watch a video of Supreme Court judgments from last term in Courtroom 2.
- Younger visitors can enjoy our Legal Eagle Trail in the exhibition area, dress up as a judge in Courtroom 1 or take part in some arts and crafts in the café.

Programme of talks:

11am	The role of the Chief Executive by Mark Ormerod, Chief Executive.	Courtroom 1 – 2nd floor
11.30am	Mistress of the Rolls: 100 years (almost) of women in law by Rebecca Lowson, Media and Communications Manager.	Courtroom 2 – 1st floor
12.15pm	How Justices are appointed by Mark Ormerod, Chief Executive.	Courtroom 1 – 2nd floor
1.30pm	Restoration and Conservation – the project to create a modern home for the Court in a historic building by Paul Brigland, Head of Office and Building Services.	Meet at reception for a 40-minute tour of the building
2pm	The history of the judicial function of the Supreme Court by Daniel Waller, Judicial Support Team Manager.	Courtroom 3 – ground floor
3pm	Beyond the Courtroom: engaging the public by Sophia Linehan Biggs, Head of Communications.	Courtroom 2 – 1st floor

Don't miss the magnificent triple-deck library on the ground floor and its ornate 'George III tapestry', which dates back to 1760 and is not normally on show to the public.

You are also invited to take a well-deserved break in our café, situated on the lower ground floor where you can take advantage of the Open Day special offer of any hot drink and any cake for just £3.95.
