

Permission to Appeal results – October 2020

Case name	Justices	PTA	Reasons given
Mission and Pastoral Measure 2011 – All Saints Church, Whitley North Yorkshire JCPC 2020/0009	Lord Hodge Lady Arden Lord Sales	Refused 5 October 2020	Permission to appeal should be refused in this application, following the clarification provided at the request of the Board, it is clear that there is no allegation of procedural irregularity and the Board accepts that the procedures of the Mission and Pastoral Measure 2011 (as amended) have been complied with. The Board sees no prospect of the appeal establishing any of the other grounds for its intervention and must therefore refuse the application.
Ramlochan (Appellant) v The State (Respondent) (Trinidad and Tobago) JCPC 2020/0028	Lord Reed Lady Arden Lord Hamblen	Refused 22 October 2020	Permission has been refused because there is no risk that a serious miscarriage of justice has occurred in this case
In the following cases, the advice which the Board proposes to give to Her Majesty is as indicated below
The Queen v Skippings (Respondent) (Turks and Caicos Islands) JCPC 2020/0019	Lord Reed Lady Arden Lord Hamblen	Refused 14 October 2020	Permission to appeal should be refused as there is no risk that a serious miscarriage of justice has occurred. Even if the Court of Appeal erred in their approach to the law, it appears from the record that there was no evidence that the Respondent touched the complainant in the manner alleged. Rather, the evidence at pages 121 and 123 indicates that it was the complainant who touched the Respondent.
The Queen v Swann (Turks and Caicos Islands) JCPC 2020/0020	Lord Reed Lady Arden Lord Hamblen	Refused 14 October 2020	Permission to appeal should be refused because there is no risk that a serious miscarriage of justice has occurred.
Convoy Collateral Ltd (Appellant) v Cho Kwai Chee (also known as Cho Kwai Chee Roy) (Respondent) (British Virgin Islands) JCPC 2020/0043	Lady Black Lord Briggs Lord Kitchin	Granted 14 October 2020
Mani (Appellant) v The Queen (Respondent) (Solomon Islands) JCPC 2019/0059	Lord Hodge Lord Lloyd-Jones Lord Burrows	Refused 14 October 2020	Permission to appeal should be refused because the application does not raise an arguable point of law. The matter is governed by the Board's recent decision in Bade v The Queen and the application gives no good reason for overruling that judgment.
